FOREWORD

"Don't Give Up The Ship"

Because we, the class of 1963, feel that our school is operated somewhat like a ship, we have chosen a ship for our yearbook theme. Aboard the U.S.S. Auriga the faculty keeps everything in ship-shape condition; the students, like a crew, always work together.

We realize that our high school career has not all been smooth-sailing. But, like sailors on a ship, we have "manned the boat", had a successful voyage, and enjoyed our four-year sojourn.

DEDICATION

Bert W. Lark
University of Rhode Island, B.S.

Senior Class Advisor
University of Illinois, M.S.

We, the class of 1963, take great pleasure in dedicating our yearbook to Mr. Lark. Throughout our high school years, his guidance and understanding have helped us through many obstacles. We appreciate his efforts, for without them, we may never have achieved many of our goals. Through this means we would like to thank him for all his endeavors on our behalf.

Graduation from high school is an important event in your lives. It is a time of reflection on the past, examination of the present, and anticipation of the future.

During the past, your home, church, school, and other community institutions and agencies have provided an environment within which basic facts and skills were acquired, an understanding of the important concepts of our system of life was provided, and a respect for and appreciation of moral and cultural standards and transcendent values were instilled.

The present is a period of transition from adolescence to mature adulthood. It is composed of the swift series of events which lead to further education, employment, the establishment of a home, and the assumption of the responsibilities of parenthood and full citizenship.

The future is always eagerly anticipated by youth. Unlimited opportunities and challenges in this land of abundance and freedom await you. Your future literally rests in your hands, hearts and minds.

Our best wishes as you continue on the journey of life. Bon voyage.

Sincerely,

George H. Daniel
Superintendent

SHIP'S

Dear Seniors:

Congratulations! As you look back over twelve years of education, you can readily see much that you have accomplished in school. You have learned to write and to speak effectively, to reason and to think, to understand the physical world and to use mathematics, to know something of man's social, political, economic and artistic endeavors, and to improve your health and physical strength. You will need to continue to learn for the world changes ever more rapidly and new skills and knowledge are needed. And, of course, you have really just begun to understand the world and to develop the best possible skills.

But there are many things that are not so easy to see. You have learned how to get along with others and what to expect of them and yourself. I believe that you have come to value honesty, fair play, and kindness in others and that you strive for these things in yourselves. If my belief is correct, then the future is in good hands.

By best and warmest regards to you. Good luck.

Sincerely,

C. J. Newlon
Principal

OFFICERS

Dear Seniors:

It is traditional that each graduating class receive messages from speakers, principals, public officials, etc. To many of you, these really leave little lasting impressions. Usually, you have more interesting and important things on your mind at the time. Consequently, I wonder how effective my letter is going to be. I hope you all read this and that it will be effective.

The biggest and most important task facing you is the development of a sincere sense of moral right and, further more, realization of your obligation toward your children in this respect. As I see it, this is the biggest task facing our country.

We parents have failed you in this respect. We are too willing to overlook things which we know are not right. But the truth of the matter is you are hurt. You are learning it is perfectly all right to lower standards — it is perfectly all right to break the law a little bit. This will only stop when the adults of the country become convinced that it isn't all right to do these things. Then and only then can we as a country begin to move forward again.

As I said before, I hope you read this and, more important, I hope it means something to you. If it does, you should find yourself re-reading it many times over.

My most sincere best wishes go to each one of you.

Sincerely,

A. J. Trocchi
Vice-Principal

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is an important organization in our school. Through the twelve members of the council, the student body is more closely linked to the school and faculty. Under the guidance of Mr. Trocchi, the council is capable of making recommendations and passing laws to benefit the school. In addition, membership on the council gives the student an opportunity to develop qualities of leadership, fellowship and responsibility while at the same time, they are taking an active part in the school's operation.

The Student Council has been responsible for such things as sponsoring spectator buses to basketball games, maintaining the school store, and ushering at the annual Open House.

GLEE CLUB

The glee club, our most popular school club, performs at various school events and at two concerts each year.

BAND

The Mount Everett Band provides the musical entertainment for our concerts and assemblies.

ALLIED YOUTH

The Allied Youth is an organization to educate teenagers about the effects, both social and physical, of alcohol. It also provides various types of entertainment for its members to prove that fun can be had without drinking.

SKI CLUB

The ski enthusiasts of Mt. Everett are members of the ski club which frequently visits the local ski areas.

G. A. A.

The G.A.A. gives the girls an opportunity to compete in various sports throughout the year.

HIGH SCHOOL INTRAMURALS

The high school intramurals club creates a spirit of competition and sportsmanship among high school students by giving them the opportunity to enjoy many different sports.

NEWSPAPER CLUB

The newspaper club, which publishes AURIGA monthly, provides literary experience for its members and reports the school news to the students.

BOY'S COOKING CLUB

The boy's cooking club teaches its members the fundamentals of food preparation and the art of cooking.

PERSONAL TYPING CLUB

The personal typing club gives an extra course in typing for those interested students. The members also do some typing for the school.

SLIDE RULE CLUB

The slide rule club teaches its members the uses of this instrument which gives them many short-cuts in math.

LIBRARY CLUB

In the library club the members learn the procedures necessary in the operation and functions of a school library.

CHESS CLUB

After learning the basic rules of the game, members of the chess club have play-offs and tournaments to establish championships.

SEWING CLUB

The sewing club teaches its members various methods of hand and machine sewing.

RADIO CLUB

In its first year at Mt. Everett, the radio club teaches its members amateur radio enthusiasts, much about the theory of electricity.

WESTERN DISTRICT VOCAL GROUP

BOY'S VOCAL GROUP

Left to right: R. Cook, P. Gunzinger, F. Nourse, R. Bennett, P. Smith.

WRESTLING CLUB

The wrestling club teaches its members the fundamentals of this sport.

JUNIOR HIGH INTRAMURALS

The junior high intramurals provides competitive athletics for the seventh and eighth grade students.

HALL MONITORS

The hall monitors compose our corridor patrol and attempt to keep order in the halls between classes.
